Education is the largest area of need for Peace Corps countries. Education Volunteers team-teach or directly teach English, health, literacy, math, and science. Education Volunteers strengthen local capacity by training and mentoring teachers in primary and secondary schools, teacher training colleges, and universities. Volunteers work with teachers to improve participatory teaching methodologies, inclusion practices, classroom management, authentic assessments, parental involvement, and gender equality in the classroom. They also create after-school programs, clubs, and camps for boys and girls to promote HIV/AIDS prevention and life skills.

CIEE offers paid teaching positions in seven countries (Chile, China, Dominican Republic, South Korea, Spain, Thailand, and Vietnam) for university graduates looking to teach English abroad and immerse themselves in a foreign community. Many recent university graduates intend to gain international work experience with a CIEE Teach Abroad program, either to kick off a career in an increasingly competitive workforce, or to segue in to graduate school. General requirements for Teach Abroad programs are a bachelor's degree in any subject and a kind, patient, and enthusiastic attitude that will inspire students.

LanguageCorps offers a variety of programs for talented people who want to travel, gain international experience, and teach English abroad. Programs are offered in 21 locations in 18 countries throughout Asia, Europe, and Latin America. The most popular programs include teaching English in either Thailand or China. All LanguageCorps programs include an intensive, four-week TESOL training and certification program, pre-departure support, and job placement assistance. Some programs include local language and cultural training, guaranteed job placement, accommodations, excursions, and other support services. In spite of current difficult economic conditions, now is a great time to teach English abroad. The availability of paid teaching positions remains high in all of LanguageCorps' international locations.

Are you thinking about applying for the JET Programme? If you are an enthusiastic, motivated and dedicated individual, why not embark upon a journey that will change your life? Each year the JET Programme, with the aid of the Japanese Ministry of Foreign Affairs, recruits thousands of new participants to come to Japan and experience a new and unique way of life. Participants are assigned to be either Assistant Language Teachers (ALTs) who provide language instruction in elementary, junior and senior high schools; Coordinators for International Relations (CIRs) who work in communities on international exchange activities; or Sports Exchange Advisors (SEAs) who promote international exchange through sports. Participants are placed with local government organizations throughout Japan in every imaginable locality, including large cities, small and medium-sized towns, and rural farming and fishing villages.

Adventure Teaching's mission: Creating a community of teachers and expats driven toward helping one another succeed, sharing information, and making the Korean experience unforgettable. You can think of AT as your partner in the search for jobs abroad. Everyone on the AT team has lived and taught in Korea, and we use our industry experience to help you navigate the Korean job market. We provide our teachers with an honest, upfront, "no-bull" perspective, and work tirelessly to prepare our teachers to live and work abroad for a year. We are aware of and interested in each teacher's unique needs and desire because we were all teachers once, too.

The Ameson Year in China is a program for recent college graduates or other qualified applicants seeking to expand their horizons and develop a global vision using their natural asset – English. In exchange for teaching English as a contribution to Chinese students for an academic year, the AYC is designed to give participants the chance to gain a deep understanding of Chinese culture, learn one of the world's most in-demand languages, enhance their professional development, gain professional experience, and improve future employment prospects in the U.S. and around the world. The program also provides opportunities to conduct independent projects of personal significance and establish a personal business or academic network in China, which can all be invaluable assets for a future career.

Chinese Culture Center is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, which sets us apart from many programs that are simply out to make a buck by bringing over underpaid teachers and plunking them down in an uncertified small/new training center. Our mission is to foster understanding and cultural exchange between American and Chinese peoples. We offer cultural and educational classes as part of our outreach programs in both America and China, fostering greater communication between these two great nations. We offer many intriguing cultural classes and activities to the American public. We are authorized and certified by the China National Bureau of Foreign Experts Affairs, a governing body that makes certain educational organizations that promote understanding and exchange are not scams.
